Dear Sir,

My husband and I borrowed a copy of your "Spanish Songs of Old California" from a public library, and became so fond of it that we must have one. Will you kindly let me know the price of it, and where we can get it.

Sincerely,
(Mrs. Charles Wheeler) Barbara Wheeler.

Mailed here
Dec 16

Dear Sir,

On Dec. 11, 1924 I mailed from the Millbury, Mass., a money order to you for one dollar and a half for which you were to send me (as per previous correspondence) a copy of your "Spanish Songs of Old California." Either the last week in December or early in January I wrote you a post card asking why I had not received the music.

The Los Angeles Post Office records show that the money order was cashed December 23, 1924, and I have received no answer from you, nor have I ever received the music.

Will you kindly let me hear from you? Did you ever receive the money order or was it cashed by some one else?

Sincerely,

Barbara L. Wheeler

Dear Madam:

I have your favor of Feb. 25.

Your order for Song Book was received Dec. 15, and the book was mailed Dec. 16. Apparently your money order was cashed duly by us, as your order is marked "Paid" on our record.

I am sending you another copy, which I trust will reach you safely.

Yours truly,
